Every member of our team contributes unique knowledge and experience, allowing us to create furniture and interior solutions that not only meet expectations but also enhance everyday living with lasting value, comfort, and timeless appeal.

KITCHEN

Elevate your home with Fabience, the premier destination for bespoke luxury modular kitchens. Crafted with cutting-edge European technology and premium materials like authentic birch plywood, our kitchens seamlessly blend stunning aesthetics with intelligent functionality. Experience customized designs, flawless finishes, and enduring quality that transform everyday cooking into a true masterpiece.

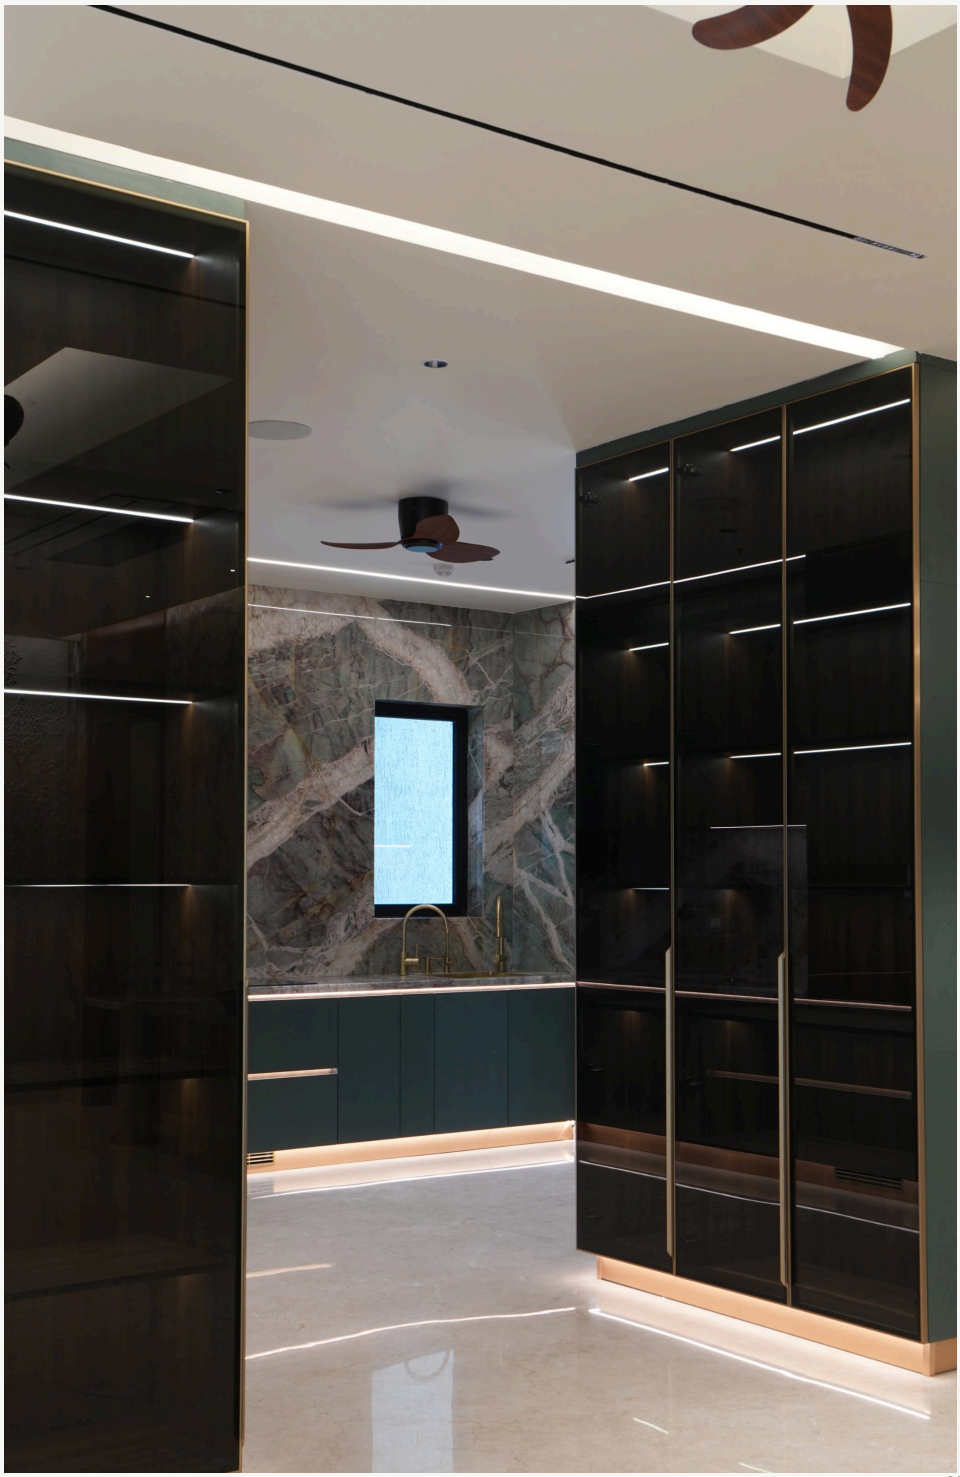

THE ELORA KITCHEN

This luxurious contemporary kitchen makes a bold statement through its dramatic use of exotic, heavily veined green and copper marble. Serving as both the robust countertop and a sweeping full-height backsplash, this incredibly rich natural stone creates a breathtaking focal point anchoring the entire room. The expansive L-shaped layout effortlessly balances these highly striking organic patterns with clean, exceptionally modern architectural geometry, dark-framed windows, and refined spatial design elements.

Premium PVD gold-finish faucets and handles for a timeless, warm accent. The single-basin gold sink seamlessly integrates with the marble countertop

The cabinetry's sophisticated matte forest-green finish perfectly complements the bold stonework. Sleek, handleless base units with recessed metallic channels maintain uninterrupted visual flow. Floor-to-ceiling pantry walls provide minimalist storage and seamlessly house integrated black appliances, keeping the space highly functional and completely streamlined.

Elevating the aesthetic, premium gold-toned fixtures, like the deep sink and gooseneck faucets, add warmth. Tall, dark glass cabinets with LED shelving offer an elegant showcase. Strategic architectural lighting, featuring continuous ceiling strips and glowing toe-kicks, completes this highly sophisticated, distinctly modern environment.

THE OLIVE GROVE KITCHEN

This kitchen combines the soothing serenity of matte sage green cabinetry with the tactile warmth of rich walnut wood accents. Designed for modern living, this space features stace integrated premium appliances, generous quartz worktops, and thoughtfully considered lighting. The curated decor and organic elements like fresh plants create a tranquil, inviting atmosphere, perfect for cooking and entertaining.

Sage Green

Walnut Vineere

White Quartz

Satin Stainless Steel

Walnut Reveals : Deep, rich walnut open shelving and display alcoves bring natural warmth and organic texture to the modern design.

Premium Matte Finish : An anti-fingerprint, durable lacquer finish in a sophisticated sage green, offering a seamless and timeless look.

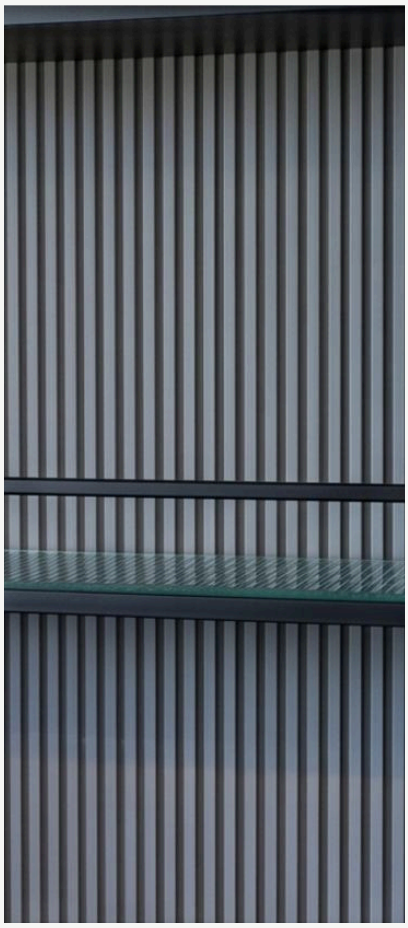

DURABLE QUARTZ SURFACES : Elegant quartz countertops with delicate veining pair beauty with exceptional durability for a seamless culinary work surface.

THE SERENITY KITCHEN

Sleek, handleless baby blue cabinetry delivers a remarkably clean, highly sophisticated, ultra-modern kitchen aesthetic.A dramatic Oceanic Jade quartzite island provides an exotic, veined focal point against dark perimeter countertops.Distinctive vertical fluted backdrops paired with warm wooden open shelving introduce a sophisticated textural depth and premium, master-crafted design details.

ARCHITECTURAL TEXTURES :
Fluted accents provide a dynamic, linear texture that breaks clean lines. Reeded glass shelving adds depth. These tactile surfaces elevate ordinary spaces, creating a sophisticated interplay of light and shadow throughout the modern kitchen.

CRAFTSMANSHIP & DESIGN :
Our 'Serenity' cabinets feature a signature satin-matte baby blue finish, hand-applied and durable. Handleless integration creates a seamless front, while precisely crafted joinery ensures longevity. These bespoke storage solutions balance modern aesthetics with everyday functionality for your ultimate kitchen sanctuary.

EXOTIC STONE :
'Oceanic Jade' quartzite for the island, a rare stone with a unique veined pattern. Paired with durable 'Nero Absolute' quartz on the perimeter counters. This striking contrast delivers an unparalleled visual impact, making your culinary space truly feel extraordinary.

MODULAR PU VENEER KITCHEN

Discover the intersection of textured warmth and architectural form. Our PU Veneer collection is designed for the modern home, offering a tactile experience that balances durability with a refined aesthetic.

INTEGRATED ISLAND :
A hand-selected solid walnut countertop paired with a unique exotic stone band. This luxurious centerpiece offers an exquisite blend of natural textures, elevating your kitchen space with sophisticated style and unmatched craftsmanship.

QUARTS STONE SURFACE

PU VENEER FINISH :
Resilient, textured wood grain veneer with multiple PU coating layers for durability. This premium surface treatment provides excellent protection against moisture, scratches, and daily wear while maintaining a beautiful, natural aesthetic appeal.

THE NORDICA KITCHEN

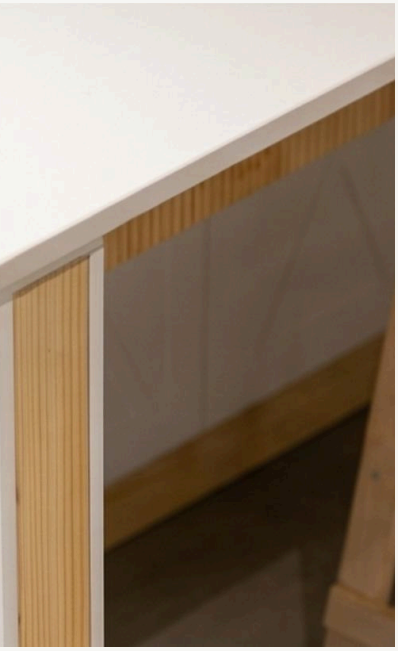

This kitchen showcases a harmonious blend of Scandinavian minimalism and modern functionality. It features sleek white cabinetry, complemented by warm light-wood accents on the kickplates and island paneling. The focal point is a large central island with a clean white countertop and two distinctive geometric wooden bar stools. Details include elegant black pull handles, contrasting dark frames on the glass-front upper cabinets, and integrated warm LED strip lighting, all set against neutral grey tiled flooring.

THE AURORA KITCHEN

The Aurora Collection expertly balances nature and modernity. It pairs the raw, warm texture of Nordic Oak laminate with the deep, reflective luster of Midnight Black High-Gloss Lacquer. This dynamic contrast, grounded by textured composite stone countertops, creates a sophisticated culinary space that is both welcoming and undeniably contemporary.

Ebony piano lacquer finish :
A flawless, deep-gloss ebony finish on the full-height cabinetry. Achieved through a meticulous 12-coat lacquering process, the highly reflective surface amplifies natural light and spatial perception. Durable and stain-resistant.

Light Oak Texture & Wood Accents :
A tactile, matte light oak finish with a prominant grain is used for the lower cabinetry, bringing a counteracting warmth. Custom solid wood open shelving and also handles providere elegant visual relief and tactile quality.

Luminous Curated Displays :
Lighting is central to this kitchen's elegant atmosphere. Integrated LED strips transform storage into stylish showcases, illuminating the antiqued brass accents and curated treasures behind glass fronts. This warm glow beautifully softens the dramatic black cabinetry while highlighting the fine grain of the Nordic Oak, creating an inviting, inspired environment.

Sophisticated Functionality :
Designed for the modern home, this layout prioritizes seamless organization without sacrificing style. It features sleek, artisan handle profiles in antiqued brass and durable work surfaces designed for daily use. From the accessible open shelving to the extensive pantry storage, every element is engineered for an efficient and inspired cooking experience.

THE ELYSIAN KITCHEN

A culinary masterpiece and architectural statement, this design is the heart of the modern home. Far more than just storage, it is a meticulously crafted modular kitchen, seamlessly integrating curated display and a high-performance culinary area. Its clean lines and luxurious textures define the space.
